AO LUKOIL HOLDS ANNUAL GENERAL MEETING

AO LUKOIL ("LUKOIL" or "the Company") held an Annual General Shareholders Meeting ("AGSM") in Moscow today to approve its 2003 annual report and financial statements based on the result of the financial year.

Vagit Alekperov, President of LUKOIL, reported on the Company's performance in 2003 and its prospects.

In 2003, LUKOIL attained a sustainable growth of its sales and reported a record high net profit of USD 3.701 billion as against USD 1.843 billion in 2002.

In 2004, LUKOIL will reconsider its investment program and will stick to a project-by-project approach. Since then, the Program will include projects with a minimum rate of return of 15%.

In 2004, the LUKOIL Group will spin-off its drilling, IT, construction and transportation service units. The Company plans to sell its core assets which do not meet the corporate profitability criteria.

LUKOIL continues to implement its cost control program focusing on corporate restructuring. In the near future the Company plans to complete the establishment of regional production, refining and marketing centers.

The AGSM approved the payment of dividends based on the Company's performance in 2003 in the amount of 24 rubles per ordinary share (19.5 rubles based on the Company's performance in 2002). The dividends will be paid within the period from July till December 2004.

The AGSM also adopted a number of amendments to the Charter of AO LUKOIL aiming to improve corporate governance and business transparency. The AGSM also approved amendments and addenda to the Regulations on the Procedure for Preparing and Holding the General Shareholders Meeting of AO "LUKOIL" and amendments and addenda to the Regulations on the Board of Directors of AO "LUKOIL".

The shareholders also considered an issue on the remuneration and compensation of expenses to the members of the Board of Directors and Audit Commission of OA O LUKOIL.

The AGM also elected the Audit Commission.

The Company shareholders also approved interested/related party transactions.

ZAO "KPMG" was approved as LUKOIL's independent auditor.
